This Sale is being held under the auspices of the

AROOSTOOK LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION

FOREWORD

The Aroostook Livestock Association is very happy to work with the Maine Beef Shorthorn Breeders Association to put on this sale. We are glad that this sale has become an annual event and one of the featured sales of New England.

At 6:30 p. m., Monday evening, April 13, 1953, all persons interested in Shorthorns are cordially invited to a banquet in the Vaughan House in Caribou. Tickets to this event will be sold at the sale. After the banquet the annual meeting of the Maine Beef Shorthorn Breeders Association will be held.

The president of the Maine Beef Shorthorn Breeders Association, Mr. Arthur Hoyt, and myself hope that our buyers and our consignors have a successful day -- and return next year to Aroostook County for this sale. Martin E. Gannon, Sec'y and Fieldman, Aroostook Livestock Association.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

REGISTRATION AND TRANSFER: All cattle including calves are entered or will be entered in the herd register of the American Beef Shorthorn Association and transferred to the buyers.

HEALTH: All animals in this sale have been tested for Bang's Disease within 30 days of sale date, or are from accredited herds, and are clean with the exception of vaccinated animals under 18 months which will be accompanied by certificates of vaccination. All animals have been T. B. tested within 30 days or are from accredited herds.

GUARANTEES:

1. Cows with own calves by side under four months of age are considered proven breeders.

2. No specific service can be guaranteed and when animal is not settled from service as stated in the catalog or announced from the auction stand, buyer has four months to serve the animal. If not then settled, she may be returned at buyers expense to the seller who also has the four months privilege. If settled, animal is returned at seller's expense. Should animal not become settled the purchase price shall be refunded or another animal substituted.

3. All animals not proving up to the foregoing guarantee shall be reported within six months of sale date.

The Aroostook Livestock Association and the sale manager act as agents only and assume no financial responsibility. They will endeavor to protect the interests of both buyer and seller. The seller shall not be liable to any damages in excess of the purchase price.

TERMS:

Cash. Settlements to be made immediately at the close of the sale. Persons unknown to the management should bring references from their banks.

KEEPING AND SHIPPING:

Buyers assume all risks and expenses on animals as soon as struck off. The management will make every effort to assist in getting animals shipped as soon as possible after the sale. Buyers must make arrangements for keeping any animals after sale date.

The sales management is in no way responsible for the condition of the promises or in the event of accident or loss to persons or property.
